DREADFUL SCENE. - The Detroit Daily Union of the 25th ult. relates a thrilling story of a desperate encounter between two maniac broth ers, which occurred on the Michigan Central on Tuesday last. It appears that a lew months ago one of the brothers, named Lawrence Roff, was attacked with symptoms of insanity, and at the time of the occurrence narrated below was on his way to the State Lunatic Asylum at Kalamszoo, accompanied by an officer and a brother of the lunatic named Christopher, the latter, who had never before shown the least signs of insanity, going partially as an assistant in case of need, and also to exercise a quieting influence over the mind of his brother. The brothers took a seat in the car together, directly in front of the officer, and for a time were noticed to ride very quietly together. At last, however, Christopher, the hitherto sane brother, commenced acting very singularlygroaning and weeping and lamenting that he was so soon to part from his brother. The officer vainly tried to dissipate these sad thoughts, but his efforts seemed rather to add to the mental hallucinations of Christopher than otherwise, while Lawrence grew more and more rational. This state of things continued until the arrival of the train at the Michigan Central Junction, when all three left it to take dinner at the eating house there. They had been seated but a moment or two when Christopher gave a yell which brought everyone to his feet, jumped to the floor, dashed the officer aside, and grappled with his brother, who had also arisen. A struggle, as of life or death, now commensed between the maniacs, those present being so shocked and paralyzed, that for a brief time they could do nothing. The brothers, with insane strength, their eyes flashing, and their mouths toaming fought desperately. The blood streamed from wounds inflicted by tooth and nail, and they kicked and pumelled each other with all the venom of the most intense hatred, both yelling The scene that ensued beggars description. Women and children rushed screaming from the doors, while the stoutest bearred men stood appalled. For a while the officer fought most courageously the two maniaes, but his singlerence Roff, treeing himself by a great effort | SPECIAL NOTICE. from the iron grip of his maniac brother, who had planted his nails in the throat of his imaginary toe, rushed from the room carrying with him a portion of his brother's clothing. Dashing to the cars, which were standing upon the track near the depot, he clambered upon them with the agility of a cat, and commenced the wildest and most extravagant antics. Christopher meantime was caught; thrown down, and bound with ropes. After a brief time the other brother was also secured and bound, and in that condition was taken on to the Lunatic Asylum by the railroad officials; while the officer, taking a homeward bound train, returned with Christopher to Monroe. After parting from his brother, Christopher, began to be more rational, and was finally landed in jail at the last mentioned place. CHILIAN DESPERADOES. - A horrible story of brigandage reaches us from Chili. Don Gomez y Ligoberon, a famous bandit captain, who, from his tastnesses in the Sierra Profunda, has long defied the Chilian authorities, was recently pursued, with the brigands under his command, by a body of troops, which succeed ed in cutting him off from his followers, and driving him to take refuge in a cavern situated near the summit of one of the lofty mountains con-tituting the above named range. In this cavern he had concealed a female captive, whose busband he had robbed and slain, and whom he had for some time compelled to live with him as his mistress. The soldiers made several attempts to reach the entrance to this cavern, to which there was only one means of ac cess-a mere mountain goat-track; but Lagoberon, a man of gigantic stature and Hereulean strength, rolled heavy rocks down upon them, and succeeded in beating them off, after several men had been severely injured. The officer in command, unwilling to sacrifice his troops uselessly, resolved to starve the bandit out, and "sat down" before the place. After two days' blockade, however, the soldiers grew weary of so tedious and humiliating an expedient, so they improvised an escalade of the robber chiettain's stronghold, and succeeded in eapturing him. To their horror they found that Lagoteron had cut off one of his unfortunate companion's breasts, and eaten it. The poor woman was discovered in a dying state, having sustained a fearful loss of blood; and she expired shortly after she was rescued from the clutches of her barbarous paramour. The butcher was conveyed to Talca, where he was promptly tried and con demned to death by the garotte. In South America, execution follows sentence with startling rapidity; and Gomez was straightway conducted to the scaffold, guarded by a strong escort of mounted gendarmes. While the execu tioner was engaged in adjusting his "toilette de mort," the convict drew a whistle from his pocket, and blew it sharply; whereupon about sixty of his men, who had introduced themselves amongst the crowd surrounding the scaffold, rushed upon the gendarmes, and mas sacred them ere they could offer any resistance. They freed Lagoberon, and completed their enterprise, in a manner not devoid of a certain ghastly humour, by garotting the executioner; after which they escaped, almost unscathed, to the mountains. There they are probably still at liberty, practicing their profession to the terror of the whole country round. It should be observed that to facilitate their flight they "annexed" the horses of the fallen gendarmes, and that a good many of them seized women from the throng gathered upon the place of execution, carrying them away, flung across their saddle-bows. The social condition of Chili, as revealed by this narrative, is one of almost hopeless degradation, only to be equall ed by that of Mexico, Greece, and certain districts of Central Africa, where murder, lust and rapine are the rules of life. Civilization penetrates but slowly into these sava_e countries,

SWEET QUININE

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose it is WARRANTED

Is a Recent Improvement.

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine, And, like it, is the one Great, Positive and Unfailing CURE for all

DISEASES OF MALARIOUS ORIGIN. Fever and Ague,

Intermittent Fever, Chill Freer. Remittent Fever,

Bilious Fever, Dumb Ague. and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

s made solely from Peruvian Park (so is Bitter Quinine;) therefore it is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral Poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poisen, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for

SWEET QUININE over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obsta-

with children. SWEET QUININE is in two forms-in Powder, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and Fluid, for use in the family and for the general public.

Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Menta! Functions Weakened, Loss of Procrestive Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons. London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the heapitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonish. ing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind: were cured immediately.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind spitting them for either husiness, study social transfer or the sad and metapolicy offects produced by early habits of youth, viz Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Diraness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart Dyspepsia, Ner yous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestiv Functions, General Debility, Symptoms . Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The tearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory.

Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persor of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance.

Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prosp ct hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, will from education and respectability, can alon befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased note properly pure in the head and limbs 112 King street. pearance, such as dicerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the lone of the nose fall in and the victim of this awful of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awfu disease becomes a horrid object of commissers tion, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thou sands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MFR. CURY, ruin the constitution and make the DR. JOHNSON, Office, No. 7, South Frederick Stree-
